

'Frozen Chosin' Reunion 1- 5 November, 2023

*By Col. Warren Wiedhahn, USMC (Ret)
Nat'l President*

How do you top the success of our 2022 Reunion? "With difficulty!" However, your reunion committee has been working hard on doing just that!

...you'll notice a special day is "In Planning" for the Marine Barracks, 8th and I, Washington, D.C.,...

First, we carefully read the After Action reunion reports. One of the biggest recommendations was that the reunion was too short, thus we have added one more day. Second, we added "variety" and you'll notice a special day is "In Planning" for the Marine Barracks, 8th and I, Washington, D.C., "Home of the Commandant" since 1801!

We have also set aside time for individual "Veteran" TV interviews, something we lacked last year. We're also working on something "special" for our ladies on Saturday morning, during the Educational

Symposium. (Stay tuned!)

We also intend to invite many distinguished guests and speakers, including General Joe Dunford Jr., USMC (Ret), former Commandant of the Marine Corps and Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff. The "new" Marine Corps Commandant has not been announced as we go to press, but he (or she) will certainly be high on our invitation list.

*We Few, we Chosin Few,
we eternal Band of Brothers!*
